

Aesthetic Experience

Cross-views

Beauty, as a reflection of our perception, unfolds in as many different ways as there are people to contemplate it. This leads us to wonder what is the basis of individual and collective aesthetic experience. In an effort to explore its complexity, we embark on an intellectual journey where experts will share their vision of the aesthetic experience according to their discipline. In this way, we seek to uncover the threads that weave the fabric of aesthetic experience. Join us as we explore the fascinating labyrinth of aesthetic perception from angles ranging from philosophy to neuroscience.